*Delivered in 2018 by renowned Italian shipyard Sanlorenzo, ANYTHING GOES V
is the ideal fun family charter
yacht, offering versatile spaces
inside and out.*

The luxury motor yacht ANYTHING GOES V measures 34.10m (111' 11") and was built by Sanlorenzo in Italy, launched in 2018. With naval architecture by Francesco Paszkowski, the yacht has a layout designed for up to ten charter guests overnight, sleeping in five cabins while serviced by a professional and friendly crew of six.

Guests arriving by tender have access to the main deck aft via two stairways, where armchairs surround the coffee table and stern-side sofa. Side-decks lead around to the foredeck, where there is a loveseat for guests to take in the uninterrupted views.

The upper deck aft has a coffee table and seating close to the aft for a casual place for guests to enjoy drinks after dinner.

On the sundeck, sun loungers cover the stern with the space amidships left clear for guests to use as desired. The sundeck forward has a broad sunpad with a Jacuzzi behind.

The ANYTHING GOES V charter yacht, along with her guests, is maintained and serviced by 6 professional crew, who provide the absolute best there is to offer in a world-class yacht charter..

Her exquisite styling and details are the work of Francesco Paszkowski, resulting in an elegant and stately yacht designed with absolute comfort in mind. She has a beam of 25' 3" (7.70m), and a draft of 6' 7" (2.00m), and is powered by 2x 12V 2000 M72 Diesel engines at 1468hp each engines, with a cruising speed of 12 knots.

Natural wood accents and glowing interiors invite guests inside YachtANYTHING GOES V. Her bright salon pours in the natural light and expands into ample seating to offer the ultimate living space where all can gather together in the evenings. Seating areas on each level provide added breathing room and the opportunity to escape into a quiet, cozy corner or catch up on some reading. She hosts contemporary style and optimal comfort for up to 11 guests within a master, double and twin cabins, making this charter ideal option for families with children..
